

BJC

British Journal of Cancer

September 1996 · Volume 74 · Supplement XXIX

Contents

The Proceedings of the Cancer Research Campaign/Department of Health Symposium on Ethnic Minorities and Cancer

- (vii) Contributors and participants in the Symposium
- (ix) Summary of Recommendations
- (x) Terminology
- Overview
- S2 Cancer and ethnic minorities: the Department of Health's perspective
V Bahl
- Epidemiology
- S12 Epidemiology of cancer in ethnic groups
CS Muir
- S17 Sources and uses of data on cancer among ethnic groups
S Harding & EJ Allen
- S22 Cancer in minority ethnic populations: priorities from epidemiological data
RS Bhopal & J Rankin
- S33 Epidemiology Discussion
- Service Provision
- S35 Assessing the health needs for cancer services for people from ethnic groups
S Rawaf
- S38 Breast screening and ethnic minorities
T Hoare
- S42 *Evaluation of a pilot study for breast and cervical cancer screening with Bradford's minority ethnic women; a community development approach, 1991-3
EEM Kernohan
- S47 Cervical cancer screening: meeting the needs of minority ethnic women
K Luke
- S51 Opening Doors: Improving access to hospice and specialist palliative care services by members of the black and minority ethnic communities. Commentary on palliative care
J Gaffin, D Hill & D Penso
- S54 *Cancer clinical outcomes for minority ethnic groups
P Selby
- S61 Service Provision Discussion
- Community Perspective
- S63 Eliciting lay beliefs across cultures: principles and methodology
T Sensky
- S66 *Ethnicity and health beliefs with respect to cancer: a critical review of methodology
N Pfeffer & C Moynihan
- S73 Betel-quid and tobacco chewing among the United Kingdom's Bangladeshi community
R Bedi
- S78 Smoking cessation programmes targeted at black and minority ethnic communities
C Farren & J Naidoo
- S81 Community Perspective Discussion
- S82 The Future Agenda – Summary of Recommendations
- [*Papers invited for the proceedings but not presented at the symposium]